

'Twas all hallows eve and around BLTC
 There were witches and pirates, Raggedy Ann and Bo Peep
 The Pharmacy Chain Gang was "sprung" from the slammer
 While aliens and chefs caused quite a clamor
 The littlest pumpkin slept thru his first Halloween
 While the HR cats handed out candy and things
 The residents cheered for the costumes of choice
 While eating their ice cream and enjoying the noise
 Miss Minnie was doling out treats left and right
 Turning Resident Assessment into a frightful sight
 And for those who enjoyed, but didn't dress the part
 No fear, there is next year—to be young at heart!
